First Reading: Vanity of Vanities. Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. Sometimes a person who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave everything to be enjoyed by someone who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart with which he toils beneath the sun? For all his days are full of sorrow, and his work is a vexation. Even in the night his heart does not rest. This also is vanity.

Response to the Psalm: O Lord, you have been our refuge, from generation to generation.

Second Reading: Risen with Christ. Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Brothers and Sisters: If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Alleluia.

The Gospel: The Dangers of Wealth. Luke 12:13-21

At that time: Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.' But he said to him, 'Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator over you?' And he said to them, 'Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of one's possessions.' And he told them a parable, saying, 'The land of a rich man produced plentifully, and he thought to himself, "What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?" And he said, "I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' " But God said to him, "Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So is the one who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.'

“So is the one who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.”

Today's Gospel is sometimes referred to as the parable of the Rich Fool. It is significant in that the presence of God is not hidden behind a contemporary figure of authority, the vineyard owner, the Father landowner, that would be relevant to the crowd, but is unashamedly and directly God. And what is his first word? "Fool!" This is a very serious parable indeed.

This display of divine impatience is sparked in Jesus by a question from a man in the crowd, angry that his brother does not seem to want to share the family inheritance. You can almost see Jesus' eyeroll in his response. This is not the purpose of his mission at all. Some tech billionaires beware!! In the parable which follows, the rich man is seen operating in a vacuum of self interest. His crops are so plentiful, his only response is to tear down and build bigger barns in the smug expectation of his expected outcome: "relax, eat, drink and be merry". No one else figures in this equation. God, however, appears to crush this ambition; the rich man's soul is required that very night.

Jesus is emphasising the need to "acquire treasure" in our soul's relationship with God. That is the only richness that matters. It is a call to share with others; to value our spiritual growth as part of a community more than our bank balance.

From Ozymandius to Scrooge, the folly of the rich and powerful man persists but God in this parable gives a stark warning. How we react to it matters.

A Call for Volunteers with the Gift of Music - Music makes the world of difference to our lives, especially in our worship. Vatican II recognised 'the importance of singing' in the celebration of the Mass and that it should be 'integral to worship' with 'due consideration for the culture of the people and abilities of each liturgical assembly'. The Diocesan Church Music Association (DCMA) is a body of volunteer musicians within Hexham and Newcastle who aim to help parishes in their use of music for the Mass. We offer practical help and guidance to parish musicians, considering that each parish will have its own musical 'house-style'. This may be a traditional choir-and-organ setup, an instrumental group, a praise & worship band, or perhaps unaccompanied singing. Previously we have put on singing days and workshops to highlight new Mass settings, simple Communion songs, music for the Triduum, as well as a 'keyboard-free' workshop for those parishes who do not have a pianist or organist. We welcome new members to join the Diocesan Church Music Association team. Our current team members are all from the Durham area, but our aim is always to have representatives from all areas of the Diocese to help inform and plan our work.
